You are cordially invited to the GOLDING INVESTOR DAYS 2026

Hotel Andaz Munich Schwabinger Tor

Capital markets are changing at an unprecedented pace. Geopolitical tensions, economic shifts and the disruptive impact of AI are redefining the rules of the game in real time and challenging even experienced investors.

In this environment, clarity matters. So does the exchange with fellow investors, the benefit of different perspectives and the ability not only to interpret developments, but to turn them into concrete decisions. We are therefore delighted to welcome you back to Munich for the Golding Investor Days.

Look forward to relevant impulses, robust perspectives and a special atmosphere at the Andaz Munich Schwabinger Tor.

Our ambition is to provide orientation, make decision-making processes tangible and show where changing market conditions can also create opportunity.

AIGILITY – Clarity to decide. Courage to act.

This year's Investor Days centre on one key question: how do investors gain the clarity to act decisively in a dynamic environment?

For more than 25 years, we have supported investors across very different market phases. We analyse developments, structure investments and provide access to attractive opportunities in private markets.

Our programme will focus on:

- The macroeconomic outlook and its implications for capital allocation in a fragmented environment
- Decision-making processes of institutional investors in an accelerated market environment
- Practical examples and the exchange of experience across our asset classes
- Current developments in technology, regulation and product design

Look forward to strong impulses from personalities who know markets, competition and leadership first hand:

Christian Lindner, Member of Management and Supervisory Boards and former Federal Minister, will share his perspective on the current economic and political environment.

Axel Hefer, Chairman of the Supervisory Board of FC Schalke 04, will offer perspectives on competition, leadership and decision-making under pressure.

And look forward to an evening that creates room for exchange, with time for the FIFA World Cup included.

Above all, look forward to what makes the difference in dynamic times: personal exchange, strategic conversations and new perspectives.

We look forward to seeing you in Munich.
Your Golding Team
